Since the time of the apostles, people have shared their faith in Jesus Christ person to person, generation to generation, in an unbroken chain. In every generation the Lord calls His people to pass on what they themselves have received: "For I received from the Lord what I also delivered to you" (1 Cor 11:23). If at any point in history just one or two generations had neglected this Christian calling, millions of people today would not know Jesus and his message of salvation. We might be among them. As catechists for adults, we are part of this generation's link in that unbroken chain of faith. Handing on the faith is a deeply personal endeavor. Those we invite into the Church will one day invite others. Generations yet unborn may one day trace their spiritual lineage to our – to your – efforts.

Come join us for a fellowship of real growth!
